Year 6	Read books at an age appropriate interest level. Work out unfamiliar words by focusing on all letters in the word, e.g. not reading invitation for invitation. Use knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes to investigate how the meanings of words change e.g. unhappy-ness, dis-respect-ful, dis-respect-ful, re-engage-ment. Use suffixes to understand meanings e.g. -cious, -tious, -tial, -cial. Read and understand words from the Year 6 list (selected from the statutory Year 5/6 word list) Use etymology to help the pronunciation of new words e.g. chef, ballet, machine, brochure – French in origin.	Maintaining positive attitudes to reading <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Listen to, read and discuss an increasingly wide range of fiction, poetry, plays and non-fiction. Regularly listen to novels read aloud by the teacher from an increasing range of authors, which they may not choose themselves. Independently read longer texts with sustained stamina and interest. Recommend books to their peers with detailed reasons for their opinions. Express preferences about a wider range of books including modern fiction, traditional stories, fables from our literary heritage and books from other cultures. Learn a wider range of poems by heart. Prepare poems and play scripts to read aloud and perform using dramatic effects. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understanding texts they read independently and those which are read to them Explain the meaning of new vocabulary within the context of the text. Demonstrate active reading strategies e.g. challenging peers with questions, justifying opinions, responding to different viewpoints within a group. Use a reading journal to record on-going reflections and responses to personal reading. Explore texts in groups and deepen comprehension through discussion. Provide reasoned justifications for their views. Justify opinions and elaborate by referring to the text e.g. using the PEI prompt – Point-Evidence-Explanation. Infer characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, justifying inferences with evidence e.g. Point-Evidence-Explanation. Predict what might happen from information stated and implied. Through close reading, re-read and read ahead to locate clues to support understanding and justify with evidence from the text. Make comparisons within and across texts e.g. similar events in different books such as being an evacuee in Carr's War and Goodnight Mr Tom. Compare characters within and across texts. Compare texts written in different periods. Recognise themes within and across texts e.g. hope, peace, fortune, survival. Distinguish between statements of fact or opinion across a range of texts e.g. first-hand account of an event compared with a reported example such as Samuel Pepy's diary and a history textbook. Skim for gist. Scan for key information e.g. identify words and phrases which tell you the character is frustrated, or first words/phrases which suggest that a theme park is exciting. Use a combination of skimming, scanning and close reading across a text to locate specific detail. Retrieve, record, make notes and present information from non-fiction, including texts used in other subjects. Analyse the conventions of different types of writing e.g. use of dialogue to indicate geographical and/or historical settings for a story. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning e.g. persuasive leaflet, balanced argument. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participating in discussion and debate Participate in discussions about books, building on their own and others' ideas and challenging views courteously. Explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, including through formal presentations and debates. Prepare formal presentations individually or in groups. Use notes to support presentation of information. Respond to questions generated by a presentation. Participate in debates on issues related to reading (fiction/non-fiction). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Retrieving and Recording Use repetition of a word or phrase to link ideas between paragraphs. Identify and use semi-colons to mark the boundary between independent clauses e.g. It is raining; I am fed up. Investigate and collect a range of synonyms and antonyms e.g. mischievous, wicked, evil, impish, spiteful, well-behaved Identify the subject and object of a sentence. Explore and investigate active and passive e.g. I broke the window in the greenhouse versus the window in the greenhouse was broken. Explore, collect and use examples of the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause e.g. I had eaten lunch when you came (past perfect); She has eaten lunch already or I have eaten lunch already (present perfect); I will have eaten lunch by then (future perfect). Punctuate bullet points consistently. Identify and use colons to introduce a list identify and use semi-colons within lists. Explore how hyphens can be used to avoid ambiguity e.g. man eating shark versus man eating shark. Explore, collect and use vocabulary typical of formal and informal speech and writing e.g. find out – discover, ask for – request, go in – enter. Explore, collect and use question tags typical of informal speech and writing e.g. 'He's your friend, isn't he?' Explore, collect and use subjunctive forms for formal speech and writing e.g. If I were able to come to your party, I would. The school requires that all pupils be honest. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Evaluating the impact of the author's use of language Explore, recognise and use the terms metaphor, simile, imagery Explain the effect on the reader of the author's choice of language. Distinguish between statements of fact or opinion within a text. Identify and use commas to indicate parentheticals, e.g. The house, lonely and abandoned, teetered on the edge of the cliff. Identify and use brackets to indicate parentheticals, e.g. in formal writing: The Cheetham (Acronyia subatus) inhabits open grassland in Africa. Identify and use dashes to indicate parentheticals, e.g. In less formal writing: The cake was lovely – delicious in fact – so I had another slice. Link ideas across paragraphs using adverbials for time, place and numbers e.g. later, nearby, secondly Use devices to build cohesion within a paragraph e.g. firstly, then, presently, this, subsequently. Use expanded noun phrases to convey complicated information concisely, e.g. carnivorous predators with surprisingly weak jaws and small teeth. Explore, collect and use modal verbs to indicate degrees of possibility e.g. might, could, shall, will, must. Explore, collect and use adverbs to indicate degrees of possibility e.g. surely, perhaps, maybe, definitely, alternatively, certainly, probably. Use suffixes -ate, -ise, -ify to convert nouns and adjectives into verbs. Investigate verb prefixes e.g. dis-, de-, re-, pre-, mis-, over- 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Manipulate sentences to create particular effects. Use devices to build cohesion between paragraphs in persuasive, discursive and explanatory texts e.g. adverbials such as: on the other hand, the opposing view, similarly, in contrast, although, additionally, another possibility, alternatively, as a consequence. Use devices to build cohesion between paragraphs in narrative e.g. adverbials such as: in the meantime, meanwhile, in due course, until then. Use ellipsis to link ideas between paragraphs. Use repetition of a word or phrase to link ideas between paragraphs. Identify and use semi-colons to mark the boundary between independent clauses e.g. It is raining; I am fed up. Investigate and collect a range of synonyms and antonyms e.g. mischievous, wicked, evil, impish, spiteful, well-behaved Identify the subject and object of a sentence. Explore and investigate active and passive e.g. I broke the window in the greenhouse versus the window in the greenhouse was broken. Explore, collect and use examples of the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause e.g. I had eaten lunch when you came (past perfect); She has eaten lunch already or I have eaten lunch already (present perfect); I will have eaten lunch by then (future perfect). Punctuate bullet points consistently. Identify and use colons to introduce a list identify and use semi-colons within lists. Explore how hyphens can be used to avoid ambiguity e.g. man eating shark versus man eating shark. Explore, collect and use vocabulary typical of formal and informal speech and writing e.g. find out – discover, ask for – request, go in – enter. Explore, collect and use question tags typical of informal speech and writing e.g. 'He's your friend, isn't he?' Explore, collect and use subjunctive forms for formal speech and writing e.g. If I were able to come to your party, I would. The school requires that all pupils be honest. Use active and passive voice to achieve intended effects e.g. formal reports, explanations and mystery narrative. Pre-cis longer passages. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Planning Identify audience and purpose. Choose appropriate text form and type for all writing. Select the appropriate structure, vocabulary and grammar. Draw on similar writing models, reading and research. Compare how authors develop characters and settings (in books, films and performances). Use a range of planning approaches e.g. storyboard, story mountain, discussion group, post-it notes, ICT story planning. Use appropriate registers for formal and informal purposes, e.g. a speech for a debate (formal), dialogue within narrative (formal or informal), text message to a friend (informal). Blend action, dialogue and description within sentences and paragraphs to convey character and advance the action e.g. Tom stomped into the room, flung down his grubby, school bag and announced, through gritted teeth, 'It's not fair!' Consciously control the use of different sentence structures for effect. Use a wide range of devices to build cohesion within and across paragraphs. Deviate narrative from linear or chronological sequence e.g. flashbacks, simultaneous actions, time-shifts. Combine text-types to create hybrid texts e.g. persuasive speech. Evaluate, select and use a range of organisation and presentational devices to structure text for different purposes and audiences e.g. headings, sub-headings, columns, bullet points, tables. Find examples of where authors have broken conventions to achieve specific effects and use similar techniques in own writing – e.g. repeated use of 'and' to convey tension, one-word sentence. Make conscious choices about techniques to engage the reader including appropriate tone and style e.g. rhetorical questions, direct address to the reader. Use active and passive voice to achieve intended effects e.g. formal reports, explanations and mystery narrative. Pre-cis longer passages. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Transcription Recognise and spell endings which sound like /ps/, /st/ – cious or –tious. Recognise and spell endings which sound like /bl/, e.g. official, partial. Investigate adding suffixes beginning with vowel letters to words ending in -le, e.g. referring, reference. Investigate use of the hyphen. Investigate and use further prefixes, e.g. bi-:trains: tele- circum- Distinguish between homophones and other words that are often confused. Identify root words, derivations and spelling patterns as a support for spelling. Be secure with all spelling rules previously taught. Use a number of different strategies interactively in order to spell correctly. Develop self-checking and proof-checking strategies, including the use of a dictionary and thesaurus. Spell words from the Year 6 list (selected from the statutory Year 5/6 word list) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Remembering and Presentation Write, using a joined style, with increasing speed. Choose the writing implement that is best suited for a task e.g. pencil for book notes, handwriting pen for letters, marker pens for posters.
Year 5	Read books at an age appropriate interest level. Use knowledge of root words to understand meaning of words. Apply knowledge of prefixes to understand meaning of new words, e.g. dis-, re-, pre-, mis-, over- Use suffixes to understand meanings e.g. -ant, -ance, -ancy, -ent, -ence, -ency, -ible, -able, -ibly, -ably. Read and understand words from the Year 5 list (selected from the statutory Year 5/6 word list)	Maintaining positive attitudes to reading <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Listen to and discuss a range of fiction, poetry and non-fiction which they might not choose to read themselves. Make comparisons within a text e.g. characters' responses of same events. Recommend books to their peers with reasons for choices. Read books and texts that are structured in different ways for a range of purposes. Express preferences about a wider range of books including modern fiction, traditional stories, myths and legends. Learn a wider range of poems by heart. Prepare poems and play scripts to read aloud and perform, showing understanding through intonation, tone, volume and action so the meaning is clear to an audience. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understanding texts they read independently and those which are read to them Explain the meaning of words within the context of the text. Use punctuation to determine intonation and expression when reading aloud to a range of audiences. Check that the book makes sense to them and demonstrate understanding e.g. through discussion, use of reading journals. Demonstrate active reading strategies e.g. generating questions to refine thinking, noting thoughts in a reading journal. Infer characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions and justify inferences with evidence. Predict what might happen from information stated and implied. Through close reading of the text, re-read and read ahead to locate clues to support understanding. Scan for key words and text mark to locate key information. Summarise main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph and identify key details which support this. Justify opinions and elaborate by referring to the text, e.g. using the PEI prompt: Point + Evidence + Explanation. Analyse the conventions of different types of writing e.g. use of first person in autobiographies and diaries. Identify how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning e.g. formal letter, informal diary, persuasive speech. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Participating in discussion and debate Participate in discussions about books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, building on their own and others ideas and challenging views courteously.
